PUBLIC COMMENTS

OLD BUSINESS:

- Farmer's Market – Follow up - Tom M. & Leila working with Gary – during the April meeting it was decided Arts Commission would have two members representing once a month. Leila is scheduling.
- Traffic Signal box wrap up – Deb – City of Bedford, Bedford Downtown Alliance called and asked many questions about our process as they want to do this in Bedford. RecDesk is up and running for print sales of Phase 1 and Phase 2. Map with locations & artists name is out and available; hopefully later this year or by next year this will be available interactively and/or via an app. Parks & Rec is researching with the assistance of IS.
- Adopt-A-Spot – Flagpole garden at the entrance to City Hall - Michele – scheduling weekly weeding.
- Team Up 2 Clean Up – last scheduled event for this year is 8/27. Register at StowOhio.RecDesk.com or through Parks & Rec at 330-689-5100
- Arts Commission Scholarship fund – TABLED – need motion to remove from table for discussion.
Updated information – Tom Stephan & Mayor Pribonic (Deb) re SMF Community Foundation
- Grant sub-committee – Deb - Mayor Pribonic recently attended an event and met reps from the Knight Foundation. They reminded him that City of Stow should apply for their grants and GAR Grants as well. Another Source: Akron Community Foundation.

NEW BUSINESS

- Fourth of July Parade 2023 – Deb – Arts Commission Participation?
- Fall Window Painting – Do you want to have this event again? Volunteer to chair/organize?
Someone needs to obtain the list of senior living facilities that want to participate again and how many windows are available to paint?

NEXT MEETING: September 6, 2022, 6:30 p.m. – Stow City Hall, Boards & Commissions Room
