Commission needs to come up with the application. Once created, Deb will submit to Law for review.
Assign a selection committee made up of Arts Comm members (selection committee members may not have any family or relatives applying; if so, they must remove themselves from the process.)
- Grant sub-committee update – Tom Manuszak
Many ideas suggested at the September meeting; Mayor Pribonic stated, THINK BIG. Kari asked each member to please come with three ideas for big events/projects – something new.
- Fourth of July Parade 2023 – participate yes/no; if so, discuss ideas for theme; elect sub-committee chair and members
No decision made yet regarding participating. Mayor Pribonic stated he does want the Arts Commission represented in some way – perhaps partner with another City Commission? Banner is available, just need a couple people to walk with the banner.
- Fall 2023 Window Painting – Sarah checking with Council PTA to see if interested in partnering on this event

NEW BUSINESS

- Free little art galleries (same idea as little Libraries or little food pantries) – Kari
Mayor stated – Arts Comm decide how you want it to look; he likes the idea of having it look like the traffic signal box as people would then recognize it as Arts Comm. Also, he likes Michele's idea of having a stump to sit on and an easel to draw. Mayor asked Commission to come to an agreement with what they would like the little gallery to look like and he will review it with his administration.
