Tanis Quach from Undivided Cleveland

Tanis Quach and a friend of his came to the Commission on Inclusion meeting and was very aggressive asking about Inclusion and DEI and racism in our City. His company is called Undivided Cleveland (216) 450-9417

ADA Transition Plan suggested by Jeremy McIntire, Councilman

After a discussion Tricia Streharsky stated that this is a too much for volunteers to take on and feels a qualified individual in a paid position would have better results.

Pamela Wind agreed that this is too much for the Commission on Inclusion to handle.

Jason Dresden feels we should be able to provide input but not take the lead.

Pamela Hunt asked why the does the City not have a compliance officer on staff.

Jason Gates thought the proposal was brought up to implement ADA Compliance in the City.

Another group question is dos the Planning Commission have someone in charge of the ADA requirements?

The Commission would like to invite Drew Reilly Asst. Law Director to our next meeting to help answer some questions
